

Today on the floor of the United States House of Representatives, I told my colleagues that until the Climate Change Bill is greatly improved, until families share in the billions this bill grants powerful lobbies, I cannot support it. To listen to my full statement, please click here .